

Harmony amongst the stars: A call from within

---

By: Mohammed Rayaana Pasha

In lands where history's pages turn,
In the heart of these nations, I yearn,
From the streets of Israel to Palestine's sand,
To the fields of India, Pakistan's land,
Russia and Ukraine, their stories unfold,
Where pain and loss are often told.

We all emerged from starry dust,
In cosmic realms, a common trust,
So why, dear humans, do we fight,
When we're but stardust, shining bright?

In this vast universe, so grand,
On Earth, united we should stand.

Let's seek cooperation's grace,
Instead of battles, in this space,
For unity can mend the past,
In stardust dreams, our peace can last.

From Israel's sun to Russia's night,
Let's choose the path of shared starlight.
